Rangoon Operator Insists He Judge Aiken Gives Strong In-That Killed Spencer.

COURTS FULL INVESTIGATION JURY

Starts to Washington to Appear and Give His Own State-

LYNCHBURG, VA. December 4.—Operator Mattox, the Rangoon block office telegraph operator, who is charged by the Southern Railway Company with being responsible for the wreck ten miles below Lynchburg, when President Spencer and guests lost their lives, left this afternoon at 5:30 clock for Washington, to Us present at the investigation to be held by the company at the general offices in that city to-morrow. Mattox ancounced his intention hast night of going to Washington this morning, but the pass for him did not reach him in time for him to take the morning local train. The transportation was carried to him this forenoon by a rullroad detective, and he boarded a train at Rangoon, a special stap having been made there for him. Mattox says he will make a full statement to the company at the investigation. He claims he was not at fault, and that the wreck was caused by Operator Jacobs, the operator at Lawyers, whom he claims en, including the dealers in coal and wood, were examined, but no indictments allowed him to let the second train into the block before the first had gotten out. Mattox claims Jacobs did not report the
